Rocks

Rocks, Dec. 18.- It was a bad week-end around here again.

Mrs. D. S Arrington is still in the bed, suffering from a sprained ankle.

Mrs. Lewis Dickerson, Samuel and Christine were all sick with the flu a few days last week.

Steve Moore was sick last week and had to miss some from school.

Everyone was glad to see Mrs. Mildred Inge out at church Sunday, after being on the sick list.

Mrs. Sadie Shelton is improving at the hospital, and hopes to go to her daughter's, in Lynchburg this week.

The Ladies Bible Class held their class meeting on Tuesday night with Mrs. Mary Inge. They also celebrated her birthday.

Quite a few from here finished the first aid course at Appomattox on Tuesday night.

Alan Franklin is working at the G. E. Plant in Lynchburg.

Mrs. Jay Almond was visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Richardson on Tuesday night.

Catherine Ranson won a clock and Thomas Ranson won a lamp at Best Furniture Company Saturday. Also Eleanor Faye Ranson won a lamp at West End Marke' at Appomattox Saturday. Congratulations to these lucky ones.

Cassie Baldwin was visiting her aunt, Mrs. George Carter, of near Sheppards Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Ranson will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Dec. 23, from 2 to 5 P. M. A reception will be held in their home.

Best wishes to the Editor and his wife, for a happy spiritual Christmas and a bright New Year.

Impressive services were held at the Galilee Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The pastor delivered a special sermon from the subject: "Their Gifts and Ours." The church choir rendered special Christmas music. A special offering was taken for the T. B. Association. At the close of the service a Christmas gift was presented to the pastor.

A large crowd of patrons and friends attended the Christmas exercises at the Carver-Price High School last Monday evening. Miss H. B. Stevens was chairman of the special committee. Music was furnished by musical groups from the primary and elementary departments. The story of Christmas was told through an effective candle-light service and drill. Remarks were given by principal R. E. Patrick.

The public is invited to attend special Christmas services at the Promise Land Baptist Church this Sunday at the regular preaching hour.

The Galilee Sunday School will hold its Christmas tree exercises on Sunday at 4 P. M.

The Mount Shilho Baptist Sunday School will render its Christmas tree exercises on Sunday evening at 7:30.

The third annual banquet sponsored by the Long Mt. Lodge No. 294 of Masons was held last Sunday evening at 3:30 in the cafeteria of the Carver-Price High School. R. Q. Lawing, Sr., served as master of ceremony. The invocation was offered by the chaplain, Rev C. L. Elliott, Past Master A. B. Elliott gave the official welcome. The guest speaker was the W. M. Grand Master, Dr. W. W. Pierce, of West Point, Virginia. He was introduced by W. M. Grand Secretary, J. Wilson Jeffress.

The entire Appomattox community was saddened to hear of the death of Mr. Rudolph Tibbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tibbs, of Appomattox. He died in a veterans hospital in Washington, D. C., after an illness of a few weeks. He was a graduate of the Carver-Price High School and of Virginia State College. He was employed by the Federal government as a biological chemist. He married the former Miss Vera Lee Megginson, of Appomattox. He leaves, in addition to his parents, his wife and three small children. Burial will be held in Washington, D. C. with Masonic and military rites, this Thursday, December 21, at 1 P. M.

We are happy to report that the Carver-Price Panthers won their fifth straight basketball game last Saturday evening, from the Campbell County High School.

Word has been received here of the death of Rev. C. A. Marshall's brother, in La.
